

IN SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES.

JANUARY 17, 1848.

Read, and ordered to be printed.

Mr. CAMERON submitted for consideration the following

RESOLUTION:

Whereas a defalcation is reported to have occurred in the United States mint at Philadelphia, which by law is made the depository of the public money—

Resolved, therefore, That the Senate will appoint a committee from its body to examine the books, vouchers, and money in the mint, with authority to command the attendance, and examine them upon oath, of all the persons employed by the government there.

Tippin & Streeper, printers.

IN SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

JANUARY 17, 1887

Read, and ordered to be printed.

Mr. CAMERON submitted for consideration the following

RESOLUTION:

Whereas a delinquency is reported to have occurred in the United States ment of Philadelphia, which by law is made the depository of the public money—
Resolved, therefore, That the Senate will appoint a committee from its body to examine the books, vouchers and money in the mint, with authority to command the attendance, and examine them upon oath, of all the persons employed by the government there.